HOMELESS YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULT FAMILY REUNIFICATION RESOURCE GUIDE

Introduction

This resource guide contains a list of agencies/ programs that provide family reunification services – both prevention and early intervention services.

In the first tab you can find a list (alphabetically) of agencies and types of available services. The subsequent tabs provide lists of agencies by type of service and greater detail about the programs.

Prevention services are provided to youth and/or family while the youth is still in the home and include home-based crisis intervention, in-home or agency-based parenting classes and support groups, crisis lines and family mediation.

Early Intervention includes services provided to youth and/or family after the youth has left home, and may include reunification, home-based family therapy, out of home crisis diversion, and follow-up services post reunification.

For additional input, edits or updates please contact Courtney Noble at cnoble@uwkc.org.
